Mr. TIMOTHY,

AS the Town was a good deal agitated laſt Friday, many of the Inhabitants, who were not preſent at the Meeting at Dillon's, have impatiently expected ſome public Account of the Tranſactions of that Day.—Mr. Crouch's and Mr. Wells's Gazettes have ſince appeared, but not a Word of the Matter.—Why? every Man is at Liberty to form his Opinion. Leſt your Paper alſo ſhould be ſilent, I, who was preſent at that Meeting, and, tho' very little acquainted with Mr. EDWARDS, have the higheſt Opinion of his Integrity, and undiſſembled Patriotiſm, and who have ſcrutinized, and obſerved an uniform Conſiſtency in, his whole public Conduct, have taken the Liberty to ſend you a Detail of theſe Tranſactions; which I deſire may be inſerted in your Gazette of this Date, whether you have, or have not, another—ſubmitting to any Corrections, if in any Point I may have erred.

I am, SIR,
Your conſtant Reader and Friend,
Charles-Town, March 14, 1771. VERITAS.

WHAT may have been the leading Motive for the Inquiry, or whence it ſprang, we will not pretend to ſay; it may be modern Patriotiſm: But, laſt Friday Morning, written Advertiſements appeared, put up in different Parts of this Town, and printed Copies were handed about the ſame Day, in the Words following:

"Charles-Town, March 7, 1771.

"WHEREAS a large CARGO of GOODS has "been lately imported here from Liverpool, contrary to "the Intent of thoſe who ſigned the Reſolutions of the 22d of "July, 1769, it is deſired that the Subſcribers of the ſaid Reſo-"lutions, will meet To-morrow Afternoon, at Four o'Clock, "at Dillon's Tavern, in order to enquire into the Circumſtances "relative to the ſaid Importation.

"N. B. The Merchants in particular are deſired to attend."

In Conſequence whereof, a great Number of People aſſembled at the Place and Time apointed. They were informed, that a Merchant, who had been a Member of the General Committee, appointed by them on the 20th of July, 1769, had imported in the Ship Fair American, Captain John Minſhall, which arrived here on the 4th Inſtant from Liverpoole, a large Cargo of all Kinds of Goods, conſiſting chiefly of Articles contrary to the Reſolutions; and that ſuch an Importation, was manifeſtly taking an unfair Advantage of other Traders, who had ſubſcribed to the ſaid Reſolutions.

Mr. John Edwards (the Merchant pointed at) was hereupon ſent for, and immediately attended. He acknowledged the Receipt of the Goods; but declared, that ſuch as were not agreeable to the Reſolutions, had been ſent out contrary to his expreſs Orders.—He offered Proofs in Support of his Declaration; but they were not then admitted to be read; ſome Prejudices having been conceived againſt him (perhaps for ſteadily doing his Duty when on the General Committee) which, I am ſorry to ſay, ſeemed not to have their Foundation in Candour or Good-Nature.

The general Cry then was, that Mr. EDWARDS immediately ſtore ſuch of the Goods as were contrary to the Reſolutions, till a General Importation ſhould take Place.—He repreſented that this would not be putting him upon the ſame Footing with thoſe, who, before the ſaid Reſolutions were altered, had imported and ſtored like Goods; they being permitted to diſpoſe of them, when that Alteration was made; nevertheleſs, he agreed that his ſhould be ſtored, conformable to the Requeſt of the People, under the Inſpection of a Committee, then to be named. Several Gentlemen were then requeſted to be of that Committee, who declined: But at length Meſſrs. Alexander Dillon, William Bampfield, Peter Leger, and William Doughty, were appointed; and the Monday following fixed upon for the Delivery of the Goods into their Charge.—And the Delivery has accordingly been made; Mr Edwards having, in this Inſtance, as in many others, diſappointed the Views of his Enemies.

As he was not allowed, at that Time, to clear his Reputation, by ſhewing his Letters and Orders, and alſo the Letters of his Correſpondent, he has ſince communicated them to many Gentlemen of acknowledged Worth, who have declared themſelves thereby diveſted of Prejudice, and perfectly ſatisfied of his Integrity, and his fair and upright Conduct, as well ſince, as before the Time of his Appointment upon the General Committee, to this Hour.

CHARLES-TOWN, MARCH 14.

ON Tueſday the 5th Inſtant, Mr. Arnoldus Vanderhorſt was married, to Miſs Elizabeth Raven, only Child of the late William Raven, Eſq; deceaſed.

Laſt Thurſday the Schooner Experiment, Capt. Darrel, and the Sloop Betſey, Captain McMurtrie, ran foul of each other going over the Bar, and received ſo much Damage that they were obliged to put back: But they have ſince been refitted, and proceeded on their reſpective Voyages.

On said Plantation there is a good Dwelling-House, and Out-Houses answerable.

My only Motive for disposing of said Plantation is my late bad State of Health, which prevents my giving the Attendance that is requisite. Credit will be given for one, two, or three Years, on paying Interest, and giving approved Security. Any Person inclinable to purchase, may treat with
